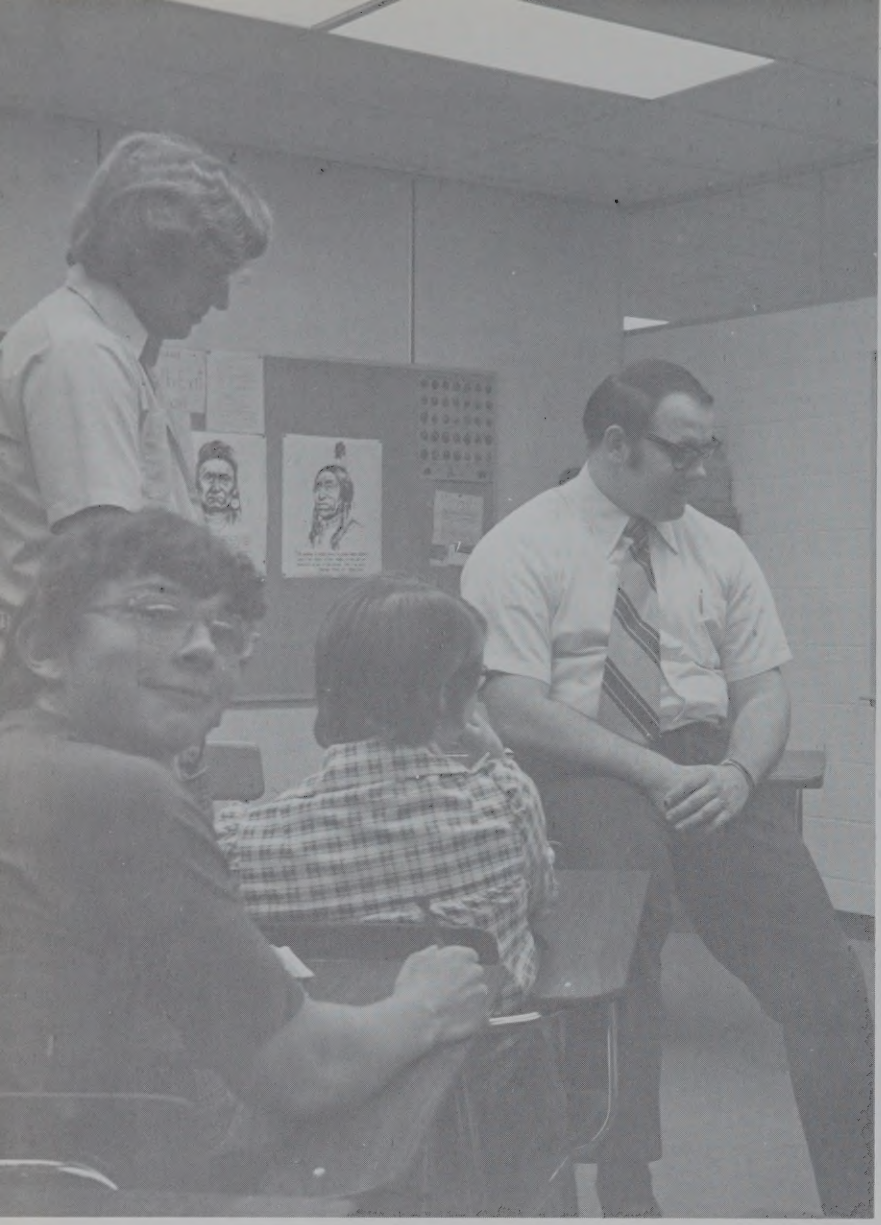
PROUD to be a BUCK



Dedication

The members of the '75 Reflector staff are proud to dedicate the 1975 Reflector to a teacher and friend to all, Mr. Terry Clark. During the past 8 years, the students, as well as faculty, have known him to be one of the most capable and understanding teachers at Buckeye. Mr. Clark taught such classes as government, psychology, and many histories, in a way that learning was mixed with fun. He used his coaching talents to help the team to have a winning season. His patience was tested as he chaperoned the Buckeye Field Studies program for four years. We hope that this dedication will help show our deep appreciation for the time, patience, and understanding he has to everyone at Buckeye for the past eight years.

Joyce Moses sings a solo.

So this is how we dance?

Craig Fierle the comedian.

Lora Johnson does a little girl.

The French Club had a prosperous year as a result of several activities. The members worked frantically to produce another enjoyable Talent Show which included comedy skits, dance solos, and a gymnastic routine.

Another French Club project was a '50's dance which was a smashing success.

Jane Cecil sings for us.

French Club Brings Out Hidden Talents

Bob Barco was Master of Ceremonies.

Jane Cecil sings again.

What are you doing Joannie and Jean?

Nita Smith did a tumbling routine.

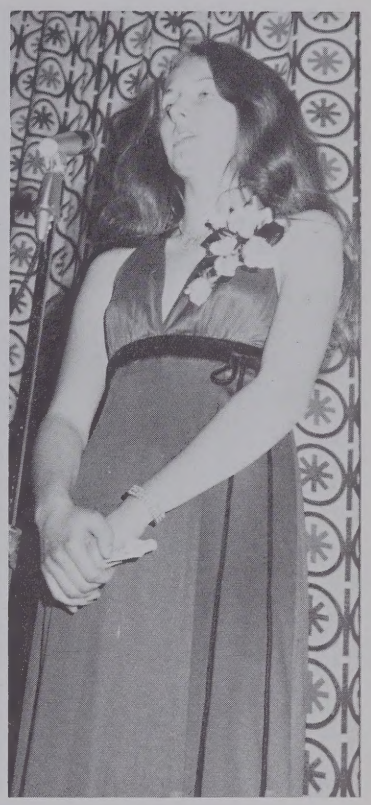
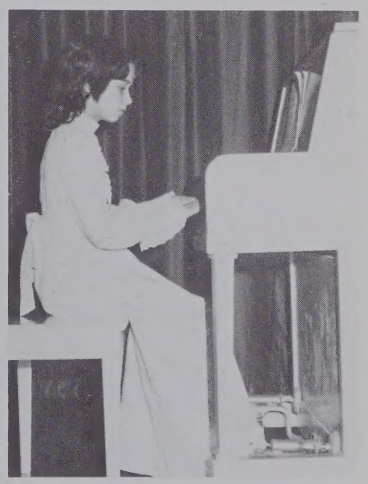
Upper Right: Angie and Liz are husband and wife?



Diane Maynard helped the M.C.



Dawn Yuhas played the piano.

The FHA girls sold daffodils in May for the American Cancer Society.

Christmas is a time of joy and the FHA'ers found plenty singing carols.

The 1974-1975 school year was a very active and prosperous one for FHA. The club started the year with initiating all new members. The FHA held its second Flea Market in the Valley City Community Hall. With fall leaving and winter coming, the FHA girls sold candy canes and went Christmas caroling through three area rest homes. Spring brought National FHA week and plans for the State convention started. Seven girls went to State Convention in Columbus and brought back new ideas.

OWE Exhibit Their Skills

Larry Holmes fills a gas tank at Friendly Shell.

OWE stands for Occupational Work Experience. It involves students going to school part time and then going out and working part time.

OWE is affiliated with VICA which is a national club for students who are in the work-study program. In this club students get a chance to be involved in their own organization and elect their own officers.

One of their major events this year was the Employers' banquet. At this meal the employer is honored by his employee by taking him out to a restaurant to eat. This is one way that the students show their gratitude to the employer.

GAA Shows Enthusiasm

Row one: J. Butcher, L. Schaefer, D. Traine, C. Houston, C. Schumacher, J. Griesheimer, S. Mack, K. Otterbacher, J. Grieve, B. Mellert, D. Carver, V. Metzger, K. Mastney. Row two: C. Sturgill, H. Academic Challenge Team

D. Neubauer, T. McDivitt, M. Steele, B. Weimer, Mrs. Campbell, advisor.

The industrious Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Burnett, was successful in bringing about the installation of a very much needed pay telephone for use by the student body.

They also raised money by raffling off John Denver tickets to purchase a school crest.

The Adacemic Challenge Team, under the leadership of Mrs. Campbell, appeared on the Academic Challenge show this year. A fine showing was made by all, and we are proud of them.

Buckeye Field Studies Heads Out West

Scenes from the 1974 Summer Field Trip

Again the Buckeye Field Studies traveled out west for adventure and a new learning experience. With Mr. Leget leading the way, they traveled to Yellowstone National Park, the Black Hills, the Grand Tetons, and many other historical sites. Unfortunately, the 1974 Field Studies trip was over much too quickly for all who went, but many memories will always remain.

FAR LEFT: Ma, is that really you? LEFT: Rich Metzger receives plaque as out-going president. ABOVE: Jim Mohler concludes his speech. BELOW: Mr. Koppes opens his gift.

The FFA accomplished many outstanding achievements the past year because of great cooperation among the members. The FFA received a Gold Rating as a chapter from the State FFA Foundation.

Many members attended the State FFA Convention in Columbus where the FFA quartet sang. Two FFA students received their State Farmer Degree and one student participated in a State speaking contest.

The FFA, advised by Mr. Koppes, sold fruit before Christmas and at Easter. Part of the money earned was used to finance their annual banquet which was held in March.

Mr. Leget talks to OSU freshman, Nancie Metzger.

Mark Wurstle pours punch while Martin Mielke drinks on.

The Future Collegians originated this year, under the direction of Mrs. McCoy. The group consists of seniors who are planning on going to college.

Their first activity was to welcome back the college freshman at an informal reception. Not only was it entertaining, but informative as well. The seniors learned a great deal about college life.

Every year members of the National Honor Society are inducted on the basis of scholastic achievement, character, leadership, and school service. The members are chosen by the teachers on the basis of these qualifications.

This year's National Honor Society was proud to induct 21 young men and women from the junior and senior classes. Their names will go on the national roster in Washington D.C.

National Honor Society's activities include picking students of the six weeks, figuring honor and merit rolls, and the planning of the Award's Assembly in the spring.

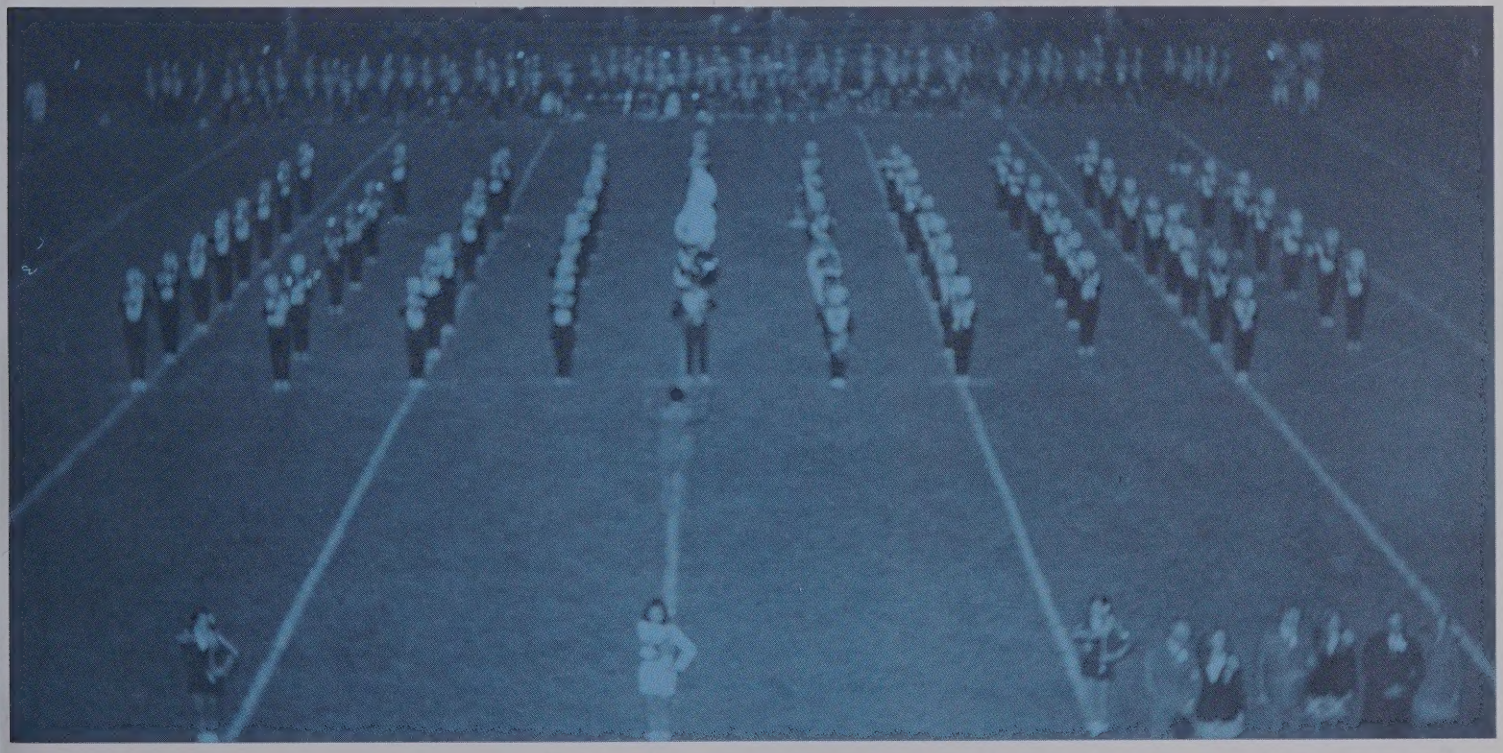
Debbie and Barb show that practice makes perfect.

And the band marches on!

Barb Brant shows the spirit the band is proud of.

MAJORETTES: B. Traffis, J. Huttinger, D. Adams, head majorette; D. Maynard, L. Charvat.



The dedicated hard work of this year's band produced many spectacular half-times and concerts.

The marching band showed its peppy beat and fancy stepping to the many different "rock" songs that were performed for the spectators during each half-time.

The majorettes with sparkly uniforms and twirling batons led the marching Bucks down the field.

Lab Assistants

J. Brackney, S. Cecil, C. Piovarchy, B. Mellert, J. Griesheimer.

The lab assistants at Buckeye High School are very busy people. Not only do they assist the biology and chemistry departments, but they also help fellow classmates during lab experiments in class.

The lab assistants are greatly appreciated by both the teachers they assist and the students that they help.

Chess Club Makes A Move

Buckeye Homecoming 1974

The Buckeye 1974 Homecoming was held on October 4. The fighting Bucks hosted the Avon Eagles defeating them to a 26-7 victory.

The Homecoming Court was announced and the girls rode around the football field in Corvettes. After their recognition, they took their spots on the homecoming float to watch the game.

Following the victory game, the crowning ceremony took place in the gym. The girls and their escorts then led the grand march consisting of the football players with their dates. Dancing concluded the events of an evening to be long remembered.

Freshmen Begin To Plan

Overlooking the freshman class activities were their class officers: Pres., Mike Piechuta; Vice-Pres., Nita Smith; Sec.-Treas., Teena Asad. The freshman class activities included a freshman football and basketball team. Both teams gave the freshmen a chance to show that they had real school spirit.

The freshmen gradually broke into the ways of the high school where they showed their happy moods and let everyone know they were there.

Juniors Prepare For The '75 Prom

For being the first year as upperclassmen, the class of '76 showed that leadership and responsibility are tasks easily won.

As they busily raised money for the 1975 prom, selling magazines and tending the concession stands during basketball games and wrestling matches, they proved that the "Spirit of '76" still lives on.

In Memoriam

Laura Harrison

October 8, 1958 — June 29, 1974

The things that I love in life are all free.
Rolling in the grass, climbing a tree.
Running through a meadow, my hair blowing wild.
The sun going down—Holding hands with a child.
The sandy beaches—mud between my toes.
Feeling I'm needed wherever I go.
Having a friend I know will always be there.
When you're having a rough time
And feel no one cares.
Bringing joy to someone new each day.
Just being myself in every way.

Laura Harrison (1974)

Heidi and Mitch take a moment to relax between banquet and prom.

Memories We Cher

First day we saw our school . . . then Buckie welcomed us all back to school.

We had to learn the Dress Code.

Becky forgot about the strict Hair Code!

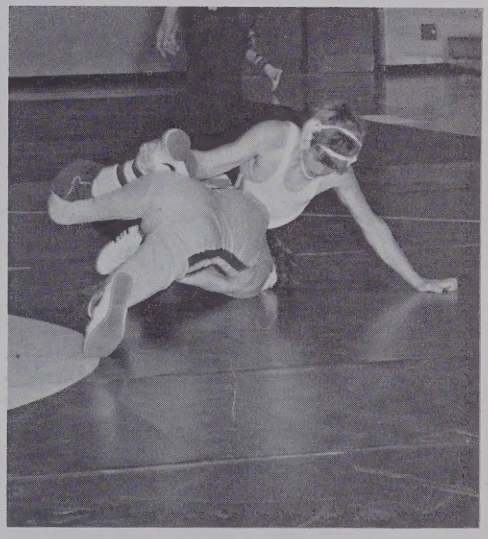
At the left is some of the new faces. At the right is reaching-for-the-books time.

ish At Buckeye Of '75

Before we knew it, our Homecoming was upon us.

Then we started to slave

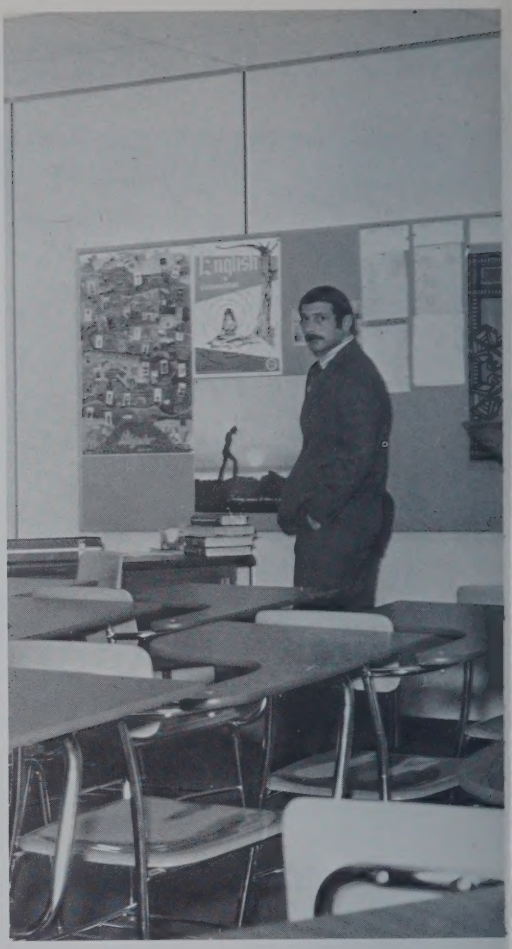
And to study.



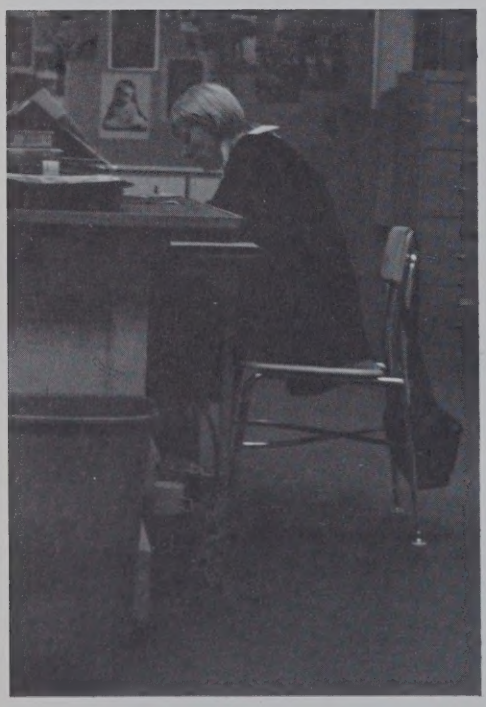
Our great Wrestlers! Rah'

After a couple of months the upperclassmen became very good friends with the freshmen and sophomores.

Soon the teachers began acting like us.



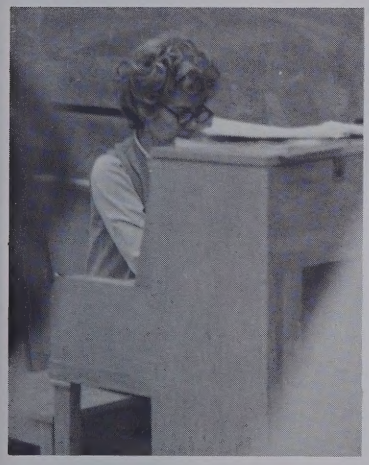
Surprise, Surprise, Surprise!



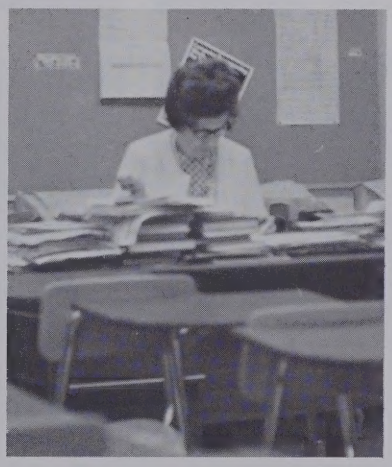
Mrs. Campbell liked "Silence!"

In May, Prom committees started to work for the big nite.

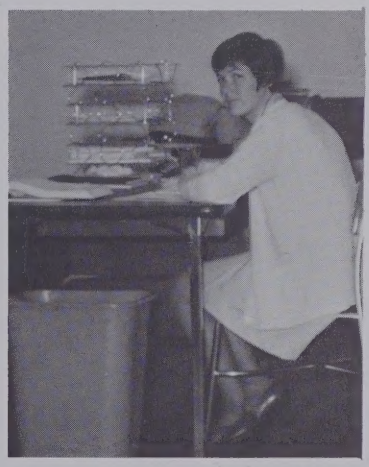
(Above) No Romancing! (At right) Everyone was happy!



Mrs. Johnson, thanks for all the music!



Mrs. Leach, thanks for all your Spectrums, typing, shorthand, etc.



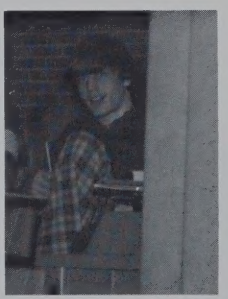
Thanks Mrs. Burnett for all the help in typing and cheerleading!

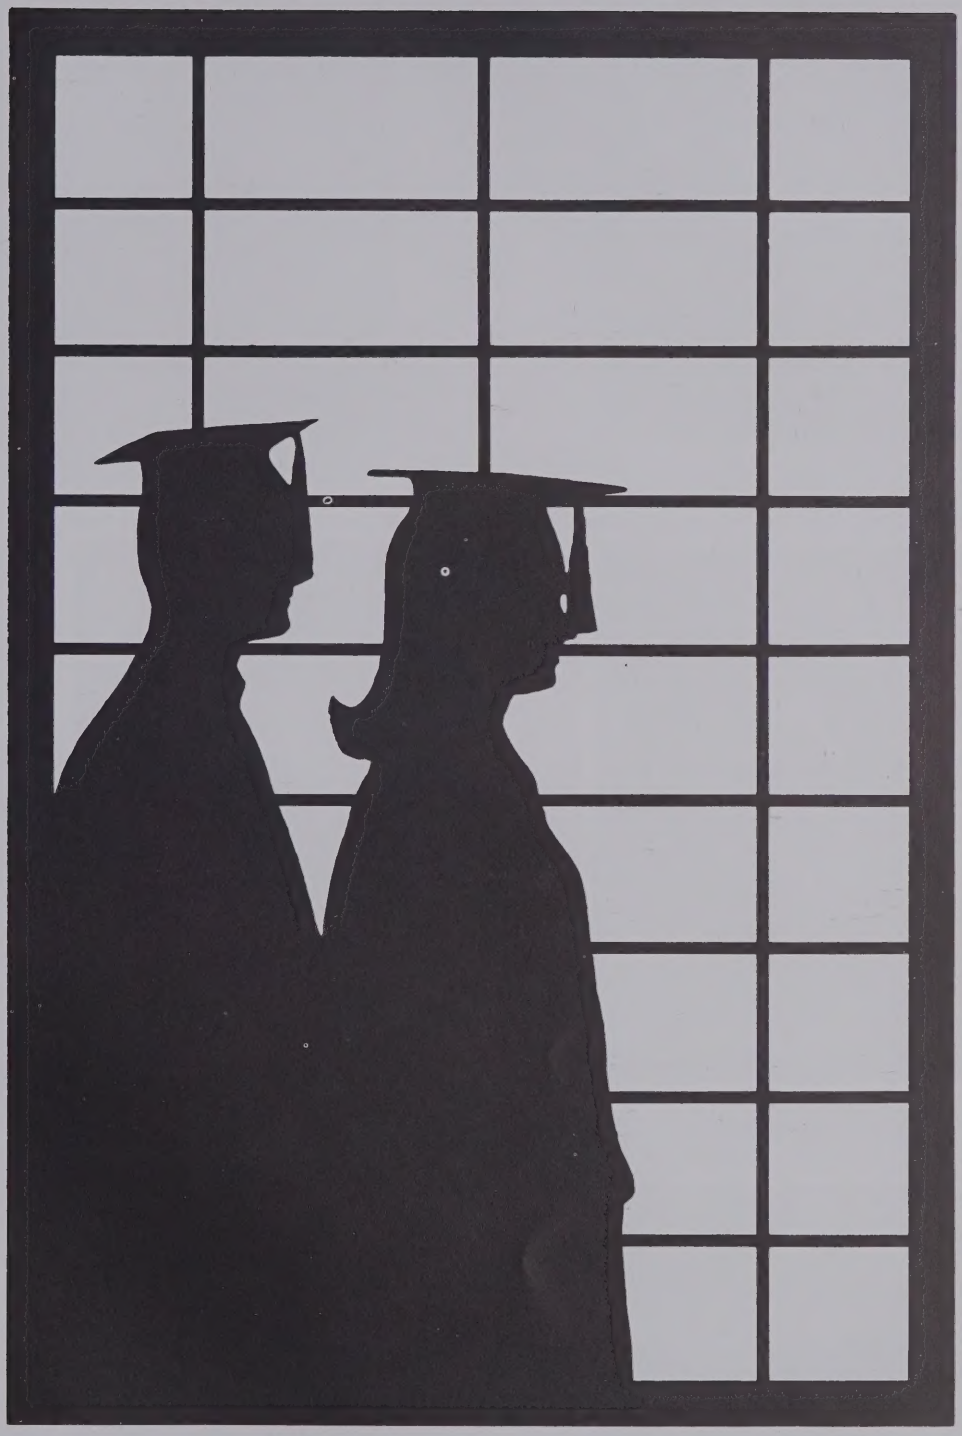
And thanks to all the other teachers who won't be back next fall for all your help in trying to teach us.

Goodbye '75

The seniors left, we left.

The Many Faces At Buckeye





Seniors

Spirit Of '75

The 1975 senior class exhibited brotherhood and spirit in its last year at Buckeye. Headed by Stella Socha, treasurer; Cheri Houston, vice-president; Ted Wolff, president; and Dona Weinbroer, secretary, the seniors made Homecoming a success.

Many enjoyable memories were had by all, including the senior trip to King's Island in Cincinnati.
